Getting logged into MyEDBC

- MyED BC is a province wide system that allows staff, parents and students to access student's educational information.
- The initial login must be completed at a laptop or desktop computer (iphone/android won't work due to an issue with the password reset).

Getting logged into MyEDBC

- Go to the following website:
<https://www.myeducation.gov.bc.ca/aspen/logon>
- This can also be accessed by typing 'MyEDBC' in google. It will generally be the first selection

You will need to use the following log-in ID and password.

Login ID: Your student number

Password: e.g. Student$35

The screenshot shows a login form titled "MyEducation BC Prod 4". It contains two input fields: "Login ID" with the text "aadams75" and "Password" with a masked password "". Below the password field is a link that says "I forgot my password". At the bottom left of the form is a "Log On" button.

Getting logged into MyEDBC

- If this is your first login, you will be prompted to change your password.
 - Type your old password
 - Enter a new password that is a MINIMUM of 8 characters (at least one upper case, one lower case letter and one symbol that isn't a letter or number - ie. $ or *).
 - Confirm your new password (please write your password down somewhere safe as you can go back in to review your information later).
- Click OK to confirm changes.
