Communications:

- A new parent, who was on the PAC from John Stubbs is very keen and looking forward to the upcoming meeting

SPEAC:

- Things are going well with the two new schools with approximately forty-five teacher positions being posted
- The Reading Recovery program is highly successful but quite expensive, so looking to shift to a literacy intervention team. The vision is a K-3 program in the long term, but the initial focus will be for grade 1
- The International Student Program are looking for host families
- Workshop on May 5th – District principal of health schools presenting on sexual education and gender diversity
- Workshop on May 19th – Island Sexual Health to give a high-level overview of what kids are learning in elementary and middle school

Principal's Report:

- Acknowledged the PAC for a wonderful job and how much it is appreciated!
- Thanked Marianne Chase for being our President for the year and presented her with a Royal Bay hoodie, t-shirt, mug, and a Ravens painting.
- For the first time in a long time the school is happy again and great to see all the smiles and feeling the energy
- We are the fastest growing district in the province and with that brings challenges
- Work order in to shut down the gender-neutral bathroom and move it
- Sports is coming along with the girl's rugby team doing very well. Good to see girls gravitating towards rugby and seeing them get a wonderful experience
- Some challenges coming out with this growth is realigning the middle school curriculum to reflect the experiential learning
- CLC 12 will be mandated for the first semester of the new school year. This will lessen the impact on staff for asking for spares
- Plan is to have portables coming to Royal Bay starting October, November and December but will lose the NOC and the staff can keep their room
- Equity and action peace with Dr. Liza Gunderson on giving discussion with teachers all year
- May 4th we were presented with the Red Dress, and it was put up for display
- May 5th Missing and murdered Indigenous women awareness day

- Looks like we will be having two classes for the Excel program. A junior and senior
- Grade 11/12 students will be having an assembly on drinking and driving
- Grade 10 students attended consent / healthy relationship workshops
- New program in the district called Take a Hike for grades 9-12
- We now have a moving Library for our kids. TASK kids built and the students from the art program painted it with the help from Lisa Burrows.
- More artwork put on windows with the art class and the help from our local First Nations
- Celebration at the end of the year on the grass field. Possible school photo
- With up coming assemblies the music and dance classes could be performing
- Mark Johnson bringing in machines for snow cones
