- Brother Rick's new documentary film will be shown to students on Sept. 29 as part of the Truth and Reconciliation activities that day
- Staff had a great planning day before school started that involved a presentation by Dr. Hannah Beach
- Dr. Beach has been invited to give a presentation to RBSS parents (date TBD)
- Currently RBSS is the overflow school for all students who were enrolled in Belmont after June 30
  - School population as of Sept. 14 was 1547 and growing
  - Makes us the largest school on the island
  - Portables likely coming in spring
    - Would have been here sooner if CML had opened on time
- We have 112 international students and 60 newcomer families in our school
  - Big welcome to all!
- Welcomed Grade 9 students on Sept. 6
  - Students ended day with a scavenger hunt with various food stations as their rewards
- Grade level assemblies for Grades 10-12 held week of Sept. 12-16 to great success
