École Royal Bay Secondary has hosted the third annual “Hack-a-Thon” this Friday and Saturday. Since its inception three years ago this highly successful student-lead event has become a very successful student event which celebrates the unique talents of students from across the South Island.

Royal Bay Hacks brought together more than 40 students from across the city where they sought to use technology to make a difference in people's lives. Students of all skill levels worked, chatted, laughed, and learned in an intensive fourteen-hour coding session.

Projects included apps and games supporting local food banks, women's rights, home gardening, carbon footprint use, trash collection, forest management, responsible driving, and more!

RBSS would like to thank teacher James Gibson and his amazing team of organizers for tackling the details of the event. They did a fantastic job putting the event together and getting the word out there. It couldn't have happened without their determination and enthusiasm.

Dear Families of 2025 ERBSS GRADS!

While there is a lot of excitement and amazing events coming in the weeks for both your grad and you folks. This is a time of celebrations and new beginnings, and we are excited for all our grads. There are some important items to attend to in the coming weeks.

Scholarships are a big part of planning for the coming years. Our grads have been getting a lot of information and encouragement to research and apply to the multitude of available scholarships attached to the school, the school district, and the community at large. I would also encourage families to research these available scholarships. We have a robust Scholarship section to the Raven's Nest and information on how to access these (Page 14). If you have any questions please reach out to your student's counsellor.

We recently had our annual ICBC presentation encouraging our students to take special care while driving, and we will follow these messages up with Grad Assemblies in the last week of April.

We have our Dry Grad Carnival coming up May 3rd followed by the Uvic Ceremonies and Prom at Crystal Gardens. Please reach out if you have any questions or needs surrounding these events, we want to make sure all of our incredible grads have no barriers for them in terms of attending these celebratory events.

Please take a look at the Grad Corner Section of the Raven's Nest for important dates.
