Ravens Rugby Banquet

The 2025 Royal Bay Ravens Rugby Awards Banquet was a proud celebration of a season defined by heart, grit, and Raven spirit. Players, coaches, families, and supporters gathered to honour an incredible group of student-athletes who exemplified excellence both on and off the field.

The Legacy Group Best Forward award, recognizing dominant presence in the pack, went to three powerhouse athletes: Klaara Goeritz, James Hudson, and Kai Abrahamson. Each brought relentless intensity, work rate, and leadership that anchored their teams through the season's toughest battles.

In the backline, game-changers were recognized with the Ryan Vending Best Back award. Maja Olcen, Dane Campbell, and Brady Neilson demonstrated vision, speed, and tactical brilliance, consistently creating opportunities and lifting the pace of play across all grades.

The Spirit Award, highlighting energy, enthusiasm, and the embodiment of team culture, was awarded to Zoe Del Rio Larose, Marcus Cleary, and Corbin Reinhardt. These players brought infectious positivity, resilience, and a passion for the game that inspired teammates and coaches alike.

The pinnacle honour of the night, the Best & Fairest – Royal Bay Rugby award, was presented to Aaliyah Patten-Weekes, Justin Bell, and Dallen Boudreau. These three student-athletes led with integrity, consistently showed excellence in their performance, and upheld the highest standards of sportsmanship and commitment to both the team and the school community.

The banquet was not just a ceremony, but a reflection of a strong and growing rugby culture at Royal Bay. Each award winner represented the values of hard work, respect, and pride in the jersey. As the program continues to grow, these players will leave a legacy and set the standard for what it means to be a Raven.

Boys Lacrosse Academy

The Royal Bay Ravens Boys Academy headed down to Denver with 56 athletes from June 12 to 17. The 2028 "AA" Ravens team went undefeated and beat the Denver Elite 11-5. Denver is a top 20 club team in the USA.

Our 2028 "A" team had a tough round robin and ended up finishing 1-4. Losing to the winning team by just 2 goals in the round robin.

Our senior team went 2-3. Each game we lost was by 1 goal. The boys dug in and were right there, but it just wasn't the Ravens' day on Saturday. The boys went on to win the finals in the consolation round on Sunday, handily taking home the consolation championship.
